CHANCE TO SHOW STRENGTH

Cornhuskers Face foe that Will Demand Best Attack.

WHERE WEAKNESS HAS BEEN

Smothering of End Runs has Paralyzed Nebraska's Offensive Play in Two Biggest Games So Far This Season.

Nebraska will Saturday have an opportunity to decide whether the present football eleven is entitled to high rank in Missouri valley circles this fall. The Cornhuskers are to meet Kansas university at Lawrence in the annual clash of the two greatest rivals of the valley. Nebraska's showing in this contest will be the piece of work from which all judgments must be made for the autumn.

There is no use denying that Cornhusker football this fall has been disappointing. The showing against Minnesota, undoubtedly the best eleven in the west, displayed the weakness of Nebraska's attack. The Cornhuskers were helpless when on the offense, with the exception of an occasional end run that was pulled off in the opening half. This means of ground gaining, however, was soon smothered through the excellent work of the Gopher ends and backs.

Again, in the Ames game, the deplorable state of Nebraska's offense was laid bare. Up against two strong ends and a fighting eleven, the Cornhuskers were helpless. The game should have been won; lack of a satisfactory offense prevented this result. End runs were depended upon and Coach Williams had devised a protection for these, which soon showed the Cornhuskers that the wings were not to be turned. There was no field goal kick among the Cornhuskers and the forward pass was not sufficiently developed to net gains. Missouri was defeated simply because the Tigers were very weak on the defense.

Kansas Well Prepared.

In Kansas the Cornhuskers will find a foe prepared for forward passes and end runs. Nebraska, so far this fall, has made its most brilliant gains on end runs. The pass forward, of course, netted the touchdown of the Ames game.

The chief criticism to be made of the Nebraska coaching system is that too much dependence has been placed in the fleet runners of the backfield. Football players cannot be made out of sprinters. If Coach Stehm has profited by the experience of the Ames game, Nebraska will have a hard time defeating Kansas, unless the Kansas ends and line of forwards are weak. These extremes were not strong against Oklahoma, but they should be much more powerful by Saturday, for the Jayhawk coaches know where the main strength of the Nebraska eleven lies. If the Kansas ends can prevent good gains by the Cornhuskers, the game will be closely contested; otherwise, the battle will be an easy victory for Nebraska.

Forward Pass by Kansas.

Kansas will resort to the forward pass and the loose ball game. The Nebraska line is too strong for consistent Jayhawk gains, and the Nebraska ends too experienced and capable to permit satisfactory wings at the wings. It will be the game of the Jayhawkers to use the forward pass and to kick.

With Delaney's toe working properly, the Cornhuskers will experience much trouble in building punts. So far this fall the Cornhuskers have been very weak in receiving punts. It would not be surprising to see the Jayhawkers score through a fumbling of a punt by Nebraska.

Hayes Gets Decision Over Frankie Burns

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—Grover Hayes of Philadelphia won a newspaper decision over Frankie Burns of the Franco in a ten-round bout here before the Orleans Athletic club tonight.

After two minutes of fighting in the opening round, Hayes floored the Cornhusker with a right to the jaw. Burns was on his feet in a second and began boxing for his life.

The bout was fast from start to finish, both boys being strong and apparently eager. After the knockdown in the first round both confined themselves to fighting until the fifth.

In the eighth Hayes opened up Burns' ear and it was bleeding furiously from the hard right swings. In the ninth Burns fought furiously. He kept Hayes busy protecting himself, landing frequently in the mid-section. Just as the going sounded Hayes almost caught Burns off his balance with a terrific left swing to the head. Burns wavered, but caught himself in time to save a knockdown. Both were tiring in the tenth, but Hayes was stronger and polished off his opponent with repeated rights and lefts to the head.

MICHIGAN REFUSES TO PLAY GAME WITH COLORADO

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 14.—The proposition made by the University of Colorado for a football game with Michigan at Denver late in November has been rejected by the Michigan authorities.

PRIDE OF HARLEM WHO WANTS TO KEEP HIS POUNDS.

Tommy Murphy, the pride of Harlem, who is haggling with Packey McFarland over the weight question.

Tommy Murphy, the pride of Harlem, who is haggling with Packey McFarland over the weight question. He is matched to fight the Chicago stock yards boy in California, but the opinion seems to be general that they will never get together. Packey is a hardy man in his hand that he will not train down to the weight that Murphy demands, saying he could not do so and at the same time enter the ring strong. On the other hand, it is easy to figure why Murphy will refuse to give away so much poundage that his journey all the way to the coast will be for naught than to face a certain beating.

South Dakota Picks Up Wesleyan Game

VERMILION, S. D., Nov. 14.—South Dakota university eleven defeated Dakota Wesleyan at foot ball here today in a bitterly fought game, 6 to 0. The lone score was made by Shueks, South Dakota halfback, with a goal kicked from the forty-yard line as a climax of a series of forward passes. Wesleyan was on the defensive most of the time, eliminating open field play.

Janitor Quits Job When Pipes Freeze

Superintendent N. M. Graham of the South Omaha High school cautioned Janitor Ed Ryan, Saturday, about keeping up the fire to prevent the pipes from freezing. The janitor said he knew his business, and proceeded to ignore the cold snap. The result was a freeze. The school board took up the matter last evening and accepted Ryan's resignation. Oscar Hummel was appointed in his stead.

DEBATING CLASS HAS ITS FIRST SESSION

Principal McHugh's class in debating started yesterday afternoon in the assembly room at the school, about twenty boys being present for the first session. This class will be personally conducted by Miss McHugh and will be held on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons of each week for the remainder of the month, until Prof. Edwin Burke of Bellevue college is ready to take charge of the work on December 1.

SCRUBS SCORE ON FIRST TEAM

Hard Scrimmage Practice by the Cornhusker Men.

DEFENSE WORK IS RAGGED

Ernie Frank Makes Two Sensational Runs, Taking Hall for Long Distances Through All Interference.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Twilight put a stop to the Cornhusker practice tonight after Coach Stehm had put his regulars through a long, grilling scrimmage and signal play. The result was not altogether satisfactory to the Cornhusker mentor, as the defensive work of the Nebraskaans was ragged at times and the regulars permitted the scrubs to score against them once.

To perfect the forward pass was apparently Stehm's aim Tuesday night, for he spent considerable time drilling his backfield and ends in the play. The result of the drill was somewhat discouraging, for the players displayed the old fault of fumbling the ball. Stehm pursued his tactics of curing the fumbling and falling on the ball. The regulars scored two touchdowns on the scrubs and five on the freshmen, who replaced the scrubs after the varsity had completely outplayed the second team men.

The scrubs were the first to score by consistently hitting the line for good gains. The varsity then braced and thereafter there was nothing doing for the scrubs. The varsity scored two touchdowns in short order and were marching steadily across the field the third time when Stehm called in the freshmen. The first year men were no match for the varsity after the first team men had gotten together and five touchdowns were scored in about fifteen minutes. Ernie Frank roled off two sensational runs, taking the ball on the kickoff and eluding the entire freshman team. A moment later he took the ball again and broke loose for a run from the kickoff, eluding all but one tackler and placing the pigskin within a few yards of the freshman goal, from where a touchdown was scored. Russell also pulled off a scintillating run from the kickoff, taking the ball eighty yards.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PRESIDENT AFTER NEW YORK MAGNATE.

President Ban Johnson of the American league, who is proving the nemesis of John T. Brush, in insisting that the owner of the New York Giants clear up the situation in regard to the world's series ticket scandal, President Johnson declares he has unshakable evidence to show that the New York club was responsible for the fact that tickets were gotten into the hands of scalpers and that prompt and forceful action by the Gotham magnates could have prevented the wholesale swindle.

President Johnson's evidence is that the New York club was responsible for the fact that tickets were gotten into the hands of scalpers and that prompt and forceful action by the Gotham magnates could have prevented the wholesale swindle.

BOWLING RULES ADOPTED

Greater Omaha Association Decides on Plan to Be Followed.

HANDICAPS ARE TO BE GIVEN

Players Must Have Bowled in at Least Fifteen Games Before They May Enter the Big Tourney.

All the necessary rules to govern the next city bowling tournament were adopted at the meeting of the Greater Omaha Bowling association held at South Omaha on Sunday. The following leagues were represented: Commercial league, by Charles Drinkwater; Omaha league, by Tracy and Rich Grotte; Magic City league, by F. M. Lepinski and Dr. Hunt; Booster league, by C. P. Rakein and F. C. Whittemore; Mercantile league, by Bert Lamb; Metropolitan league, by Charles Orlman, and Packers' league, by R. A. Hammond.

The tournament will be rolled under a handicap system, the handicap to be figured on a basis of an average of 100 pins, 100 being scratch and each entry whose average is difference, and but in order to receive this handicap a player must have participated in at least fifteen games, the average to be taken at the end of the week preceding the tournament, which opens on January 8.

A handicap committee consisting of the seven secretaries of the seven leagues, members of the association, will have sole charge of the handicaps and their decision shall be final.

Fred Gjerde, F. M. Lepinski and Phil Walens were appointed to act on the schedule and prize committee.

The five-man event will be bowled on the Francisco alleys, the doubles on Garlow alleys at South Omaha and the singles on Ker's alleys.

It is expected that the entry list will surpass any previous tournament of the kind ever held, as the handicapping will have much to do with securing the entry of the weaker teams, who now have as much chance as the stronger ones.

Elimination Contest.

The second and third series were rolled last night in the elimination tournament for a diamond ring and two gold watches. At the end of the second series Moran and Sayniah were low, three players remaining. In the third series, Godenschwager's consistent and Dolan. Godenschwager's consistent and Dolan. Godenschwager's consistent and Dolan.

Brodegar Takes Two.

On the upstairs Metropolitan alleys the Pete Lochs took two games from the Brodegar and Crown.

For the first time since the start of the high single of 212 and high total of 503, McCarthy shot a nice game of 224 for the single for the Pete Lochs and the high total of 503.

Kubry's total of 503 was the high total of the series.

BRANDIS JEWELERS.

Bernard Cullen shot 112 for the high single for the Brandis Jewellers.

Joe Kernell shot 112 for the high single for the Brandis Jewellers.

F. O. Bradshaw shot 112 for the high single for the Brandis Jewellers.

INDEPENDENTS.

Joe Vannoy shot 112 for the high single for the Independents.

Ed Vannoy shot 112 for the high single for the Independents.

William Vannoy shot 112 for the high single for the Independents.

Sunkist Wins.

The Manly's Sunkist trimmed the Derby Woolen Mills three straight in the Metropolitan tournament. Dolan of the Sunkist team was both high single of 212 and high total of 503.

MORRIS OUTCLASSES GEYER

Referee White Stops Fight in the Ninth Round.

BATTLE PROVES HARD AND FAST

Denver Man Proves His Gameness by Continually Boring in, But Former White Hope's Superior Weight Is Too Big a Handicap.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The bout between Carl Morris, the Oklahoma heavyweight, and Jack Geyer of Denver was stopped by Referee White in the ninth round tonight. Morris easily outpointed the Denver heavyweight throughout.

The ponderous Oklahoma man took the scales at 235, with Geyer thirty pounds lighter. The bout was a hard, fast battle.

Although Morris outpointed his man in every round, except possibly the first, Geyer showed wonderful pluck and was continually boring in, his most effective blow being a short left uppercut.

Morris Frequently Had His Man on the Ropes.

Morris frequently had his man on the ropes in the rushes for the ring was seventeen feet square—but the Denver man showed his gameness by fighting back after his left eye had been closed. The referee stopped the bout in the ninth to save him from further beating.

Geyer opened the fight with a rush, sending a left and right to the head and then in a clinch landed a right uppercut, but got a hard one in the stomach in return. The Denver man tried another right, but got one himself on the jaw. Morris then jabbed twice.

At Long Range Fighting Geyer Might Be Said to Have the Better of the Round.

At long range fighting Geyer might be said to have the better of the round, but in the second Morris kept working a short right uppercut. In the third round the uppercutting hand puffed Geyer's right eye and in the fourth Morris continually got to his bad eye. Geyer hit low, but Referee White declared the blow accidental.

In the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth, Geyer Fought More or Less at Random, Being Unwary to See out of one eye and was Always Weak at the Bell.

In the sixth, seventh and eighth, Geyer fought more or less at random, being unwary to see out of one eye and was always weak at the bell. Another round of Morris' forcing convinced the referee it was time to stop. The general verdict was that Geyer was not outgamed, but was wholly outclassed.

MICHIGAN HARD AT WORK

Yost Regards Pennsylvania Game Most Important of Year.

TWO SCRUBS TO HAVE CHANCE

Chicago Promised Shakeup and a Week of Hard Training by Coach Stagg in Preparation for Contest with Cornell.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 14.—Afternoon and evening practice, at least three scrimmages, the tryout of two men selected from the scrubs, and hard, steady work to perfect new trick plays and Yost's new evolutions of the forward pass, is the football program for the present week which the Michigan squad must complete before meeting Pennsylvania on Perry field next Saturday. The coming contest is regarded by Michigan as the all-important game of the season.

Yost today pulled Peterson and Weyman from the scrubs, hoping to make a regular lineman of the former and substitute halfback of the latter. Having new injuries, Michigan will face Pennsylvania with a stronger lineup than that which played Cornell, for it seems certain that Craig will be able to play and it is quite possible that Quarterback McMillan will be ready. That McMillan's absence cost the Cornell game is what absence cost the Cornell game is what many Michigan supporters claim.

Coach Yost tonight sanctioned the request of the Detroit Alumni of the University of Michigan to send immediate messages to several former Michigan football stars, asking them to hurry to Ann Arbor and lend Yost their assistance in preparing the eleven for Saturday's big game.

The alumni invited Tom Hammond, "Oaty," Graham and Bert Graver, all of whom are believed to be in Chicago. It has been many years since Michigan adopted such a course.

Stagg Promises Shakeup.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Coach Stagg promises a shakeup and a week of hard training for the University of Chicago eleven in preparation for the game with Cornell next Saturday. Poor tackling and blocking, slowness with the open field tactics and inadequate defense are a few of the faults Coach Stagg will attempt to remedy.

Several shifts in the lineup are expected when the team meets Cornell. Davenport, who made some brilliant runs against Northwestern university last Saturday, may be given a regular back field berth. Scrub probably will go back to right end and Canning will return to his regular position at right guard.

SPARTA, Wis., Nov. 14.—Fourteen students, all members of the Sparta High school football team, were expelled today from school, as a result of a controversy between the faculty and the team.
